Form W-4 (2014)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2014 expires February 17, 2015. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,000 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee: • Is age 65 or older,

• Is blind. or

• Is blind, or

• Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub, 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances. Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity iincome, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2014. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4

Important: You must complete a new Form NC-4 EZ or NC-4 for tax year 2014. As a result of recent law changes, how you determine the number of allowances for tax year 2014 will differ from previous years. Most taxpayers will not be entitled to as many allowances, and as a result, more taxpayers should claim zero (0) allowances. Additionally, you are no longer allowed to claim a N.C. withholding exemption for yourself, your spouse, your children, or any other qualifying dependents.

FORM NC-4EZ: Please use this form if you:

- Plan to claim the N.C. standard deduction

- Plan to claim no tax credits or only the credit for children
- Prefer not to complete the extended Form NC-4
- Qualify to claim exempt status (See line 3 or 4 below)

You may complete Form NC-4, if you plan to claim N.C. itemized deductions, federal adjustments to income, or N.C. deductions.

If you do not plan to claim the credit for children, enter zero (0) on line 1. If you plan to claim the credit for children, use the table below for your filing status, amount of income, and number of children under age 17 to determine the number of allowances to enter on line 1. For married taxpayers, only 1 spouse may claim the allowance for the credit for each child.

Section B. Please understand that retirees are subject to earnings restrictions.

Retirees may be subject to earnings restrictions upon returning to work. State return-to-work laws require suspension of retirement benefits when earnings from applicable employers exceed the allowable limit. Before returning to work, be sure that you understand the return-to-work laws that apply to the System from which you retired. For example, new retirees in the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System (TSERS) may not work with a TSERS employer, or make arrangements for future work, until the first six months of retirement have passed. A summary of return-to-work laws for the Local Government Employees' Retirement System and the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System is located in Guides B, C, and D.

Section C. Please tell us if you are receiving a monthly benefit from any of the systems below.

YES, I am currently receiving a monthly benefit from the following: (check all that apply)

Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System (TSERS)

Local Governmental Employees' Retirement System (LGERS)

Consolidated Judicial Retirement System (CJRS)

Legislative Retirement System (LRS)

Disability Income Plan of North Carolina (DIPNC)

NO, I am not currently receiving a monthly benefit from any of the above listed systems.

Section D. Please sign below.

I certify that I have read the Guides and the information I provided in Sections A and C is correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that if my employment subsequently creates an overpayment of benefits from the Retirement Systems Division, I am fully responsible for the repayment of the said overpayment.
